These sketched impressions of Bolivia, done in pencil and ink, are the work of Patricia Modugno, who served as a Peace Corps Volunteer there. Patricia studied at the Philadelphia College of Art, has had exhibits in several art shows on the East Coast and currently is doing graphics and visual aid work for the Arizona State School for the Deaf and Blind in Tucson. Shown actual size, these sketches were made when she was a Volunteer secretary in La Paz in 1967 and are representative of a larger exhibit on display at Peace Corps headquarters. Any Volunteer—present or former—who wishes to have art work or photographs displayed in the Washington office should contact Cathy Wallace, Rm. 913, Peace Corps, Washington, D.C. 20525.
