

Overview of Multiple Subject CLAD Credential Blocks
Offered at San Diego State University
School of Teacher Education
(subject to change)

Block	Classes Begin	Length of Program	Unique Features/Emphasis	Location of Courses	Student Teaching Location	Days and Times (Approximate)	Team Leader	Team Leader Contact Information
Accelerated	Early Jan. (with a mtg in Dec)	7 months	This program features flexible scheduling of coursework and student teaching. Includes winter and summer session enrollment and student teaching placements at year-round schools. This program costs a couple hundred dollars more than our traditional 2 semester programs.	SDSU	San Diego City Schools	Mon-Fri 7-3 p.m., at least 2 nights a week, & several Saturdays 8:30-4:30 p.m. each month	Kelly Moore Diane Lapp	kmoore@hshmc.org 619-594-6146 lapp@mail.sdsu.edu
Alliance for Excellence and Diversity	Fall	2 semesters	This block concentrates on preparing culturally responsive teachers who will be effective teachers for all diverse students. Within this collaborative community, there is an emphasis on learning to be excellent teachers who are reflective and thoughtful practitioners who are student-centered, intellectually grounded, and aware of and responsive to the political and cultural contexts within which teachers work.	Maryland Ave Elementary School	La Mesa/ Spring Valley Schools	Monday through Friday 8:00-4:30 with 2 seminar meetings a semester in the evening hours (4-6 pm) during student teaching weeks . 8 weeks of classes, 8 weeks of student teaching	Cathy Zozakiewicz	619-594-1152 czozakie@mail.sdsu.edu
Chula Vista	Fall (begins 2 weeks before SDSU start date)	2 semesters	This program is site-based at a model technology school. Special emphasis is placed on the following: effective strategies for working with culturally & linguistically diverse students; designing standards-based instruction & curriculum; using technology in the classroom; creating democratic & caring communities for learners; and shared-expertise workshops offered by Clear View teachers.	Clear View Elementary School	Chula Vista Elementary Schools	Monday through Friday 8:00-4:00 with at least one evening course (4-7 pm) each semester	Marva Cappello	619-594-1322 cappello@mail.sdsu.edu block website: http://edweb.sdsu.edu/ptp/

North County	Spring	2 semesters	This program offers training & practice in exemplary teaching strategies in a rich environment, including quality master teachers, diverse children, & daily application of literacy and language development strategies. Most courses in this cohort offer a blend of face-to-face and online instruction.	Walker Elementary School	Elementary Schools in Mira Mesa (San Diego Unified School District) and Poway Unified School District. Placement in the Poway district requires an interview with District personnel.	Monday through Friday 7:20-4:00 with one evening per week in the Fall	Carol Prime	619-594-0827 prime@mail.sdsu.edu block website: http://coe.sdsu.edu/ncp
San Diego	Fall	2 semesters	This program focuses on the development of thoughtful, reflective practitioners, capable of working successfully in urban, multicultural settings. Reading and language arts are a major emphasis of this program.	SDSU	San Diego City Schools	Monday through Friday 7:00-4:00 p.m. or on some days 7:00-7:00 p.m. SDSU classes are taught in the afternoons and evenings. Student teaching (16 weeks) takes place in the mornings and some afternoons, gradually easing into the entire day for the last 3 weeks of each semester.	Janice Van Dyke Diane Lapp	vandyke@mail.sdsu.edu 619-594-6146 lapp@mail.sdsu.edu
Santee	Fall (begins 1 week before SDSU start date)	2 semesters	All coursework interweaves theory and practice, emphasizing the development of thoughtful, reflective practitioners, capable of working with children from diverse backgrounds. Teachers from the Santee School District lend their expertise to the regular methods coursework by being available for on-site observations in their rooms and by visiting methods classes.	Carlton Hills Elementary School	Santee School District (and Cajon Valley School District)	8:00-4:00 Monday through Friday. Methods classes for the first 8 weeks with one day per week devoted to classroom observation. Full time student teaching placement at school sites the last 8 weeks of each semester.	Cathy Close Katie Williams	czclose@san.rr.com kwillia@mail.sdsu.edu

Strategic Choices in Education (part-time)	Fall & Spring	3 or 4 semesters	This block can be completed in a minimum of 3 semesters but may be extended through a 4 th term. Part time coursework scheduled late in the day allows students to continue working until student teaching begins. Options for the fulltime student teaching placements may be selected for Spring or Fall. Choice & flexibility characterize this program. Even though this program is called "Part Time" you are able to take 12 units each semester for Financial Aid purposes.	SDSU Chase Ave Elementary (El Cajon)	Cajon Valley and San Diego City Schools	Coursework two evenings per week 4:00-6:40 p.m. during the first semester. Second semester includes 6 hours per week at a school site. Fieldwork and/or student teaching may be completed in El Cajon. Third Semester includes evening coursework and full day student teaching.	Charlie Littrell Patti McCullough	haney@mail.sdsu.edu mcc29@cox.net
Model Education Center	Fall (begins 2 weeks before SDSU start date)	2 semesters	The MEC cohort meets for all methods courses at Jamacha Elementary, which allows the faculty of SDSU to become a more integral part of the learning community of CVUSD. The classroom at Jamacha, K-14, features a two way window occasionally allowing students the ability to observe classroom teachers as well as SDSU faculty interacting with and teaching elementary school children. Diversity within the CVUSD allows student teachers the opportunity to teach in learning environments of low and high socioeconomic status, varied programs, and cultural diversity.	Jamacha Elementary School	Cajon Valley Union School District (CVUSD)	Monday through Friday 8:00-4:00. There will be a late afternoon/evening class one evening a week. Additional opportunity: MEC students provide a Reading Tutorial Program for designated Jamacha students. This program runs Tues and Thurs from 11-11:30 AM for 8 weeks during methods courses.	NOT CURRENTLY OPERATING	