

COMMUNITY-BASED BLOCK PROGRAM
LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

Page 1 of 2

The Community-Based Block Cross-Cultural Counseling Program demands of its students not only strong intellectual capabilities, but also particular emotional resources and personal characteristics. It sometimes happens that a student highly qualified in other respects is admitted to a counseling program, but the emotional demands then exceed her/his capacities. As difficult as these judgments may be, we hope you will assist our faculty in this aspect of selection. Please rate the applicant on the basis of your own experience with other individuals with similar background and training.

 yes (no reservations)                       definitely no reservations

PLEASE ANSWER THE FOLLOWING ON A SEPARATE SHEET OF PAPER

Each year, a richly diverse, multicultural group of candidates apply to the program. The CBB Admissions Committee reviews these applications then selects students who can learn together and contribute to each other's learning. The Admissions Committee would appreciate a narrative recommendation and evaluation of the candidate. We have included some suggested topics. Please do not feel limited by them:

- a. length of time you have known the candidate,
- b. circumstances under which you have known the candidate,
- c. what you consider to be the candidate's most outstanding talents or characteristics,
- d. what you see as the candidate's chief liabilities,
- e. the unique contributions you see the candidate making to the Community-Based Block learning community,
- f. the ability of the candidate to assume responsibility for her/his learning,
- g. the ability of the candidate to contribute to the learning of others,
- h. what potential you see for the candidate's success as a graduate student in a Master's degree program,
- i. your assessment of the candidate's emotional maturity, stability and resilience,
- j. the ability of the candidate to build relationships and work competently with people from diverse backgrounds.

We would greatly appreciate any additional comments you might have about personal characteristics of this applicant that might have a bearing on her/his functioning as a student and, later as a professional (please feel free to add to your letter of recommendation).

Return to: The applicant. This letter must be included in her/his completed application packet. If the applicant has signed CONFIDENTIAL, then the appraiser should sign the sealed envelope flap and the applicant is to return the Recommendation Form in an unopened envelope.

OVERALL EVALUATION OF THE CANDIDATE:

Outstanding candidate                       Strong candidate                       Average candidate
 Fair candidate                       Poor candidate
